Called to Faithfulness

Daily Efforts with Eternal Impact

Lately, I have been thinking with great admiration about the faithfulness of the people who invest in the students at Emanuel University. Some of the investors dedicate their entire lives to spending time face to face with the students and mentoring them. Others dedicate their financial resources for years to professionally and spiritually train our students to become God's ambassadors in society. Both prove what in Christian language is called "faithfulness" or "consistency."

Let's not become discouraged in doing good, for in due time we will reap, if we do not become weary (Galatians 6:9). God's Word urges us to live a life of consistency. Consistency involves discovering the important things, those with a great purpose, and making a daily effort to achieve them. These cannot be achieved through intense action, just as an athlete cannot excel if he trains for 10 hours every two months. But, if he trains daily, he will get the desired results.

Many of us accept these things on a theoretical level, but this is not the case in practice most of the time. Thomas Edison said that "the three great essentials to achieve anything worthwhile are, first, hard work; second, perseverance; third, common sense." The reason we are not consistent is that we have a short-term mentality.

And yet, if you are a consistent person, what's next?

The apostle Paul answers: do not become discouraged in doing good. Once we start on the path of consistency, fatigue, boredom, even obstacles can appear. Daniel was a faithful man in good times and hard times: Now when Daniel learned that the document was signed, he entered his house (and in his roof chamber he had windows open toward Jerusalem); and he continued kneeling on his knees three times a day, praying and offering praise before his God, just as he had been doing previously (Daniel 6:10). Why is it that God's people have the power to remain faithful to him in troubled times? Because they know their daily efforts have an eternal impact.

Thank you, dear partners, for the consistency you have shown in supporting Emanuel University for months or years! We pray that God will reward your hard work and help us to enjoy the result of service in this life and eternity!

My name is Cun Viorica, and I am a professor at Emanuel University of Oradea, within the Faculty of Social Work. I teach the subject of Physical Education to first-year students, as well as a class on "Methods of psychosomatic recovery for patients" to first-year students pursuing their bachelor's degree in Social Work. With the same passion, I get involved in various social and volunteer activities, which I consider a civic duty, thus fulfilling the command to love our neighbour as ourselves.

Some tips for each of our subscribers:

Since we are still in this challenging period of the Covid-19 pandemic, when restrictions of all kinds are imposed again, it is wise for all of us to organize our entire activity in a way that allows us to carry it out in optimal conditions. Therefore, it is vital that we turn to the essential ingredients mentioned in the pages of the Holy Scripture in 1 Thessalonians 5:16-18 for a healthy balanced life that grows out of our heart's spiritual condition: Rejoice always, pray without ceasing, in everything give thanks. It is essential to practice these spiritual disciplines perseveringly and passionately. Only in this way will we be able to face all the challenges of every day.

Stories of Faith

Emanuel University means a lot to me. It was the place where God strengthened my calling and prepared me for His work. Here I met God's people, who were not only my teachers but also my spiritual parents, mentors, and brothers.

Pastor Sabin Văran

Baptist Christian Church
"Holy Trinity", Aleșd

My name is Sabin Văran, and I graduated from Emanuel University of Oradea from the Faculty of Theology, completing a bachelor's degree in Theology in 2008 and a master's degree in Theology in 2010. By God's grace, after completing my bachelor's degree, I entered the pastoral service. For 11 years, I served the First Baptist Church "Maranatha" in Moldova Nouă, part of the Danube Gorge in Caraș Severin County. Later in 2019, I moved to the "Holy Trinity" Christian Baptist Church in Aleșd, Bihor County to serve as their pastor.

Emanuel University means a lot to me. It was the place where God and brothers. Here I made friends who were passionate about pastoral work and mission and who are now the colleagues with whom I serve, collaborate, and counsel in the work of the Lord's Kingdom. At Emanuel University, I learned what it means that God is with me. I experienced this in the way He cared for me, and in the way He cared for the school. I had everything I needed. Through foreign mission trips to Bulgaria, Albania, or Turkey with students from Emanuel University, I saw the Lord's companionship and provision. I understood what it means to share the Gospel with people of other religions. I learned to pray, fast, sing, serve and do all things with integrity and excellence. I knew that no one leaves Emanuel University because of material shortcomings, for this place is where God honors seriousness, purity, good character, and humility and always cares for His people.

After the six years spent at Emanuel University, I understood that everything has its time and there are wonderful things that God makes beautiful in their own time. I thank God for this place, with the people who make it so beautiful. May the presence of God never leave this place. This has been a prayer that the whole school has always prayed. And, as before, as God blessed His people in the land of Goshen, may God renew His blessings for Emanuel University, pour out His grace, and use all those who begin their service, each in his own field, for His Kingdom and glory.

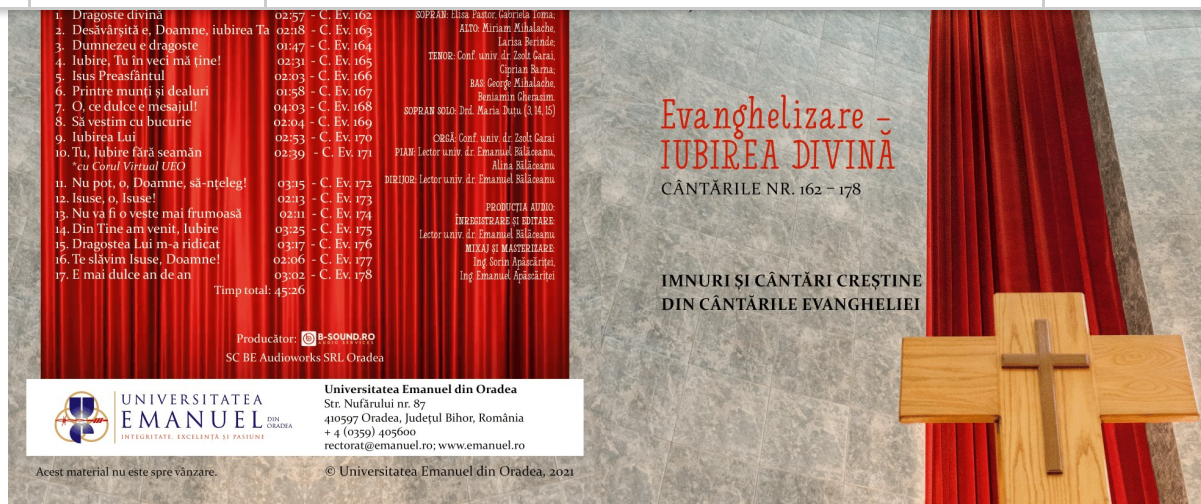

I was offered so much through Emanuel University. The most important thing that all those who have studied or will study here must not forget is that it is required that in the end, each of us should be found faithful in the work entrusted to him. The blessings of the Lord will fill our lives and do so even in the midst of suffering, and the heavenly rewards will be for all those good and faithful servants.

With appreciation and gratitude,
Sabin Văran

Be part of the vision!

Throughout the year, the Scholarship Fund helps EU students by providing them with financial support as they study and volunteer. Gifts of all sizes bolster the collective strength of the Scholarship Fund and give the students the opportunity to focus on becoming the Christian teachers, musicians, social workers, business and IT leaders, and missionaries which the world so desperately needs. You can help them by joining the group of people who faithfully have financially supported the Scholarship Fund.
