EBENEZER!

Every five years, all higher education institutions in Romania undergo academic evaluation conducted by the Romanian Accreditation Agency in collaboration with evaluators from other EU countries.

In 2021, it was time for Emanuel University to be evaluated again. We had six different teams of experts that evaluated our academic programs, professors, our graduates. There was not one single stone unturned – they thoroughly searched and evaluated every aspect of our school.

On January 27, 2022, the Accreditation Agency published on the institution's website the result of the periodic evaluation of Emanuel University of Oradea, Romania: accreditation of all evaluated fields of study, and following the institutional evaluation, Emanuel University of Oradea maintains its accreditation with the qualification “High Trust”. In Romania, academic accreditation is granted with one of the following qualifications: “Limited Trust,” “Trust,” and “High Trust.”

By God’s grace, with this qualification, Emanuel University maintains its place among the best higher education institutions in Romania, a place won after the evaluation in 2009, when for the first time Emanuel University of Oradea earned the “High Trust” qualification.

With joy and thankful hearts, we praise God for all the blessings he has given us every year, from the founding of Emanuel University to the present day! We also sincerely express our gratitude to our students, faculty and staff, graduates, prayer partners, churches, and all those who spiritually and materially support Emanuel University for their contribution to this great achievement. We especially express our gratitude to Emanuel Baptist Church and the Board of Trustees for their dedication, faithfulness, and steadfastness in the spiritual and material support of Emanuel University.

For all the achievements of Emanuel University, we should affirm together and with all conviction: “To the only God our Savior, through Jesus Christ our Lord, be glory, majesty, dominion, and authority before all time and now and forever. Amen” (Jude 25).

Meet our professors!

I consider the teaching experience at Emanuel University a privilege to inspire, guide, and pass on to the next generations the things received as a whole. Among them the Christian faith manifested in and through the art of music.

Andriesei, Gabriel Popescu) were the events that determined my professional path. I consider the teaching experience at Emanuel University a privilege to inspire, guide, and pass on to the next generations the things received as a whole. Among them, the Christian faith manifested in and through the art of music. Innovation will continuously operate with elements received from past generations. Our role as professional trainers is to offer these elements to students and cultivate their innovative spirit, having as foundation and premises the Christian values.

Stories of Faith

For me, EUO was the perfect place where God, through the teachers and mentors I found there, began to prepare me step-by-step for the work he would call me to a few years later. If I were eighteen years old now, I would certainly choose to study at Emanuel University.

Emanuel University of Oradea has played a vital role in my training, not only as a professional but also in growing as a person and in my spiritual development. I wanted to prepare to get involved in God's work from my adolescence, possibly to study Theology. Still, in that period of the communist regime in Romania, I did not even dare to dream that it would be possible.

Thus, at the age of 19, I worked in the hospital with patients diagnosed with leukemia. Many of our patients were very young, and we could see them fading under our eyes despite our efforts to save them. The death of these young people led me to ask some questions: "Why does God give me health while other young people my age die?", "If God adds more years to my life than theirs, how should I live?"

A book I read at that time helped me find the answer to these questions: I must invest my life in eternal things, namely the Word of God and the souls of men. It was clear to me that God had surrounded me in the hospital with souls who were in dire need of hearing the good news of the Gospel, of feeling God's love, and of reconciling with Him. I needed another place, a school where I could study and deepen my understanding of His Word. Sometimes I like to believe that God saw my desire to study theology and intervened by changing even the course of history so that I could study in a Christian school, right in my hometown.

patient's soul!" With this in mind, I started my first year at Emanuel Bible Institute with the desire to prepare myself to be able to do something for the souls of patients with incurable diseases. For me, Emanuel University of Oradea was the perfect place where God, through the teachers and mentors I found there, began to prepare me step-by-step for the work he would call me to a few years later. And yes, if I were eighteen years old now, I would certainly choose to study at Emanuel University.
